Original Antique Carved Wood Cradle — Hand-Refinished & Repainted — Pagoda-Style Canopy — Painted Landscape Scene

HISTORY

This is a striking antique carved wood doll cradle featuring an unusually elaborate design — a curved pagoda-style canopy roof, carved floral scrollwork along the headboard, and a scalloped rocker base. The original cradle is a fine example of folk-art doll furniture, its carved details pointing to a skilled maker's hand. The piece has been given new life through a careful hand-refinishing and repainting by Sandy Wade, the proprietor of Mom's Joy Room, who applied the

COLLECTOR NOTES

Note: The original cradle is antique/vintage; the painted finish and landscape scene are the hand-applied work of Sandy Wade, who refinished and repainted the piece herself. This is noted transparently as a creative restoration rather than original factory or folk-art paint. The original carved wood construction and form are antique; the decoration is newly applied. No maker's mark is present on the original cradle.

"An antique cradle, lovingly given new color by hand — ready to rock the next generation's dolls to sleep."
