"Jessica Louise"

Porcelain Cabbage Patch Collector Doll — Applause, 1984

HISTORY

At the height of Cabbage Patch Kids mania in the early-to-mid 1980s, licensee Applause produced a line of porcelain collector editions aimed at adult doll collectors rather than children — translating Xavier Roberts' famously round-cheeked, yarn-haired soft-sculpture design into a more formal, limited-edition porcelain format. "Jessica Louise," dated 1984, is one of these porcelain collector releases, featuring the signature Cabbage Patch face sculpt rendered in bisque/porcelain with yarn hair and a period-appropriate dress, sold with its original box and documentation.

COLLECTOR NOTES

Porcelain Cabbage Patch collector dolls from the 1980s remain a nostalgic, accessible entry point for collectors of both Cabbage Patch memorabilia and porcelain dolls generally. Examples retaining their original box and papers bring meaningfully more than loose examples — the market rewards documented completeness here more than almost any other factor.
