

MOM'S JOY ROOM

2964 Fairmont Road, Morgantown, WV 26501 | (304) 282-3671

CERTIFICATE OF DESCRIPTION & VALUATION

Antique Danish Silverplate — Repoussé Village & Tavern Scene Motif

HANS JENSEN SILVERPLATE

Hans Jensen — Denmark — Large Assortment of Serving & Vanity Pieces

A portion of Sandy's Hans Jensen silverplate assortment — ice bucket, bells, cocktail spoons, vanity mirror & brush, covered boxes, and more

Large Assortment — Hans Jensen Silverplate, Denmark
Repoussé Village/Tavern Scene Motif — Serving, Vanity & Decorative Pieces

HISTORY

Hans Jensen of Denmark was a mid-20th century Danish silverware maker known for finely detailed silverplate pieces decorated in a distinctive repoussé (raised relief) style, most often depicting charming Danish village and tavern scenes — figures gathered outside half-timbered buildings, festive courtyard gatherings, and pastoral countryside vignettes. Pieces are typically marked "Denmark" along with the maker's whale-symbol hallmark on the underside or base. Hans Jensen produced a wide range of silverplate goods for the vanity, bar, and tabletop — mirror and comb sets, jewelry and powder boxes, ice buckets,

CURRENT MARKET VALUE GUIDE

$15 – $150 per piece

Varies by item type & size:

Ice bucket: $75–150

Mirror & brush/comb set: $30–70

Covered box/canister: $40–90

Bells (each): $20–40

Cocktail/stirrer spoons (each): $10–20

Tankard/mug: $50–100

Danish silverplate collector market data 2024–2025

bells, cocktail spoons, and decorative serving pieces — all sharing the same recognizable repoussé scenework. These pieces were popular mid-century imports and remain sought after today for their intricate detail and old-world Danish charm.

◆ Hans Jensen's silverplate is instantly recognizable by its raised Danish village and tavern scenes — a hallmark of mid-century Danish silver craftsmanship. ◆

NOTABLE INFORMATION

- ◆ Maker: Hans Jensen — Denmark, mid-20th century
- ◆ Motif: Repoussé Danish village/tavern scene, consistent across pieces
- ◆ Assortment includes: ice bucket with tongs/ladle, vanity mirror & brush set, decorative bells, cocktail/stirrer spoons, covered boxes and canisters, a tankard-style mug, and additional decorative silverplate accent pieces
- ◆ Material: Silverplate over base metal (not sterling)
- ◆ Condition: Good vintage condition overall, with expected age-appropriate tarnish/wear typical of silverplate
- ◆ Collection scope: This is a large, varied assortment — additional pieces beyond those pictured may be available

COLLECTOR NOTES

Attribution note: Attribution to Hans Jensen is based on the consistent repoussé village-scene motif and silverplate construction style documented across marked examples of this maker. Individual pieces should be checked for the "Denmark" and whale-symbol hallmark to confirm maker on a piece-by-piece basis.

"A little piece of old Denmark for every corner of the table — timeless silver, timeless charm."

Mom's Joy Room | Morgantown, WV
Certificate Issued: July 2026

Sandy Wade, Proprietor

Sandy Wade, Proprietor
(304) 282-3671