Naber Kids Wooden Art Doll — Signed H.P. Naber, 1987–1988

HISTORY

Naber Kids were created by German-born artist Harold P. (H.P.) Naber, who began hand-carving wooden character dolls in the 1980s, each individually signed and often dated by the artist himself. Known for their distinctive wooden construction, expressive hand-painted faces, and artist provenance, Naber Kids built a devoted collector following through doll shows and specialty retailers in the late 1980s and early 1990s. "Maxine," dated to 1987–1988, reflects the brand's hallmark combination of folk-art woodcraft and fine collectible doll artistry.
