Charlotte

Lenci, Italy — Modern Collector Series

HISTORY

Founded in Turin, Italy in 1919 by Enrico and Elena Scavini, Lenci built its reputation on felt-faced dolls with hand-painted, side-glancing expressions unlike any other maker of the era. The company continues to produce limited-edition collector dolls in the same spirit, dressed in richly detailed period-style costumes and issued with individual certificates of authenticity. Charlotte, presented in her original decorated box, wears a forest-green felt hat and a multi-tiered pink organdy ruffled dress, and is accompanied by her original numbered Lenci certificate.

NOTABLE INFORMATION

- ♦ Modern Lenci collector-series doll, new in original box
- ♦ Green felt hat with matching pink organdy ruffled dress and green shoes
- ♦ Original Lenci Certificate of Authenticity included in box
- ♦ Distinct from Sandy's other two Lenci dolls: "Isabella in Pink" and the antique circa-1927 felt child doll

COLLECTOR NOTES

Charlotte is the third piece in Sandy's small grouping of Lenci dolls, and the second modern collector-series example alongside "Isabella in Pink." Because she remains boxed with her paperwork intact, she retains full collector value; modern Lenci dolls losing their box or COA typically see values drop by 30-40%.
